

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA
MISSOULA DIVISION

PHILLIP BRUINSMA,

Petitioner,

vs.

JAMES SALMONSON,

Respondent.

Cause No. CV 18-11-M-DLC-JCL

AMENDED ORDER AND FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION OF
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE
JUDGE

This case comes before the Court on Petitioner Philip Bruinsma's application for writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. §2254, filed January 29, 2018. Bruinsma is a state prisoner proceeding pro se.

I. Background

Bruinsma was one of a group of petitioners that joined in filing what they characterized as an "En Masse Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus- 28 U.S.C. § 2254 as per Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure." (Doc. 2). The "en masse" petitioners sought to challenge the constitutionality of the criminal charging process utilized against them by the State of Montana. Id. at 18-32.

Bruinsma, and the additional petitioners, were notified that the Court would not allow them to proceed as a group and that separate cases would be opened for each. (Doc. 1 at 1-5). Petitioners were then ordered to respond individually to advise the Court whether or not they wished to proceed and, if so, petitioners were directed to each complete the Court's standard habeas form. Id. at 5-6. Bruinsma did not respond to this Court's order.

i. Motion for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis

Bruinsma appears to request this Court grant him in forma pauperis status in the "Affirmation" he filed. (Doc. 3). Because there is no reason to delay this matter further, to the extent Bruinsma attempts to make such a motion, his request will be GRANTED.

ii. Motion to Dismiss

Bruinsma asks this Court to dismiss Sexual Abuse of Children and Sexual Intercourse without Consent convictions handed down in Montana's Eleventh Judicial District Court, Flathead County, in Cause No. DC-2015-090B. (Doc. 4 at 1).¹ The argument is premised upon what Bruinsma believes to be a faulty and unconstitutional state criminal charging process. Id. at 1-12.² This Court is not able to provide Bruinsma the relief sought. Federal district courts, as courts of original jurisdiction, do not serve as appellate tribunals to review errors allegedly committed by state courts. MacKay v. Pfeil, 827 F. 2d 540, 543 (9th Cir. 1987); see also Atlantic Coast Line R. Co. v. Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, 398 U.S. 281, 296 (1970)(“lower federal courts possess no power whatever to sit in direct review of state court decisions”). It would be entirely inappropriate for this Court to review and dismiss the state convictions as suggested by Bruinsma. The Motion to Dismiss (Doc. 4) is DENIED.

¹ See also Montana Correctional Offender Network: <https://app.mt.gov/conweb/Offender/3021006> (accessed March 7, 2018).

² All of the "en masse" petitioners filed this identical motion, but each specified his individual state-court conviction(s).

iii. 28 U.S.C. § 2254 Petition

As noted, Bruinsma has not filed an individual petition for habeas corpus relief as directed. And as stated in this Court’s prior order of February 5, 2018, Bruinsma is precluded from filing his request for habeas relief en masse with other petitioners. (Doc. 1 at 1-5). Dismissal on that ground is appropriate. See Stewart v. Martinez-Villareal, 523 U.S. 637, 645 (1998)(explaining that dismissal for technical procedural reasons should not bar prisoners from ever obtaining federal habeas review)(citing United States ex rel. Barnes v. Gilmore, 968 F. Supp 384, 385 (N.C. Ill. 1997) and Marsh v. U.S. Dist. Court for Northern Dist. of California, 1995 WL 23942 at *1 (N.D. Ca. 1995)). Recognizing that courts generally treat pro se habeas petitioners leniently, the dismissal should be without prejudice. Castro v. United States, 540 U.S. 375, 377 (2003); Woods v. Carey, 525 F. 3d 886, 889-90 (9th Cir. 2008).

II. Certificate of Appealability

“The district court must issue or deny a certificate of appealability when it enters a final order adverse to the applicant.” Rule 11(a), Rules governing § 2254 Proceedings. A COA should issue as to those claims on which a petitioner makes a “substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right.” 28 U.S.C.

§ 2253(c)(2). The standard is satisfied if “jurists of reason could disagree with the district court’s resolution of [the] constitutional claims” or “conclude the issues presented are adequate to deserve encouragement to proceed further.” Miller-El v. Cockrell, 537 U.S. 322, 327 (2003) (citing Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000)). Where a claim is dismissed on procedural grounds, the court must also decide whether “jurists of reason would find it debatable whether the district court was correct in its procedural ruling.” Gonzalez v. Thaler, 565 U.S. 134, 140-41 (2012) (quoting Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000)).

The claims advanced by Bruinsma do not appear to make a substantial showing that he was deprived of a constitutional right. No reasonable jurist would suggest the Court go forward with the case without Bruinsma’s participation. A certificate of appealability should be denied because reasonable jurists would find no reason to encourage further proceedings.

Based on the foregoing, the Court enters the following:

ORDER

1. To the extent that Bruinsma’s “Affirmation” (Doc. 3) seeks the grant of in forma pauperis status, the request is GRANTED. The Clerk of Court shall waive payment of the filing fee.

2. Bruinsma's Motion to Dismiss (Doc. 4) is DENIED.

RECOMMENDATION

1. Bruinsma's Petition (Doc. 2) should be DISMISSED without prejudice.
2. The Clerk of Court should be directed to enter a judgment of dismissal.
3. A certificate of appealability should be DENIED.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO OBJECT TO FINDINGS & RECOMMENDATION AND CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO OBJECT

Mr. Bruinsma may object to this Findings and Recommendation within 14 days.³ 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Failure to timely file written objections may bar a de novo determination by the district judge and/or waive the right to appeal.

Mr. Bruinsma must immediately notify the Court of any change in his mailing address by filing a "Notice of Change of Address." Failure to do so may result in dismissal of this action without notice to him.

DATED this 17th day of April, 2018.

³ Rule 6(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that "[w]hen a party may or must act within a specified time after being served and service is made under Rule 5(b)(2)(C) (mail) . . . 3 days are added after the period would otherwise expire under Rule 6(a)." Therefore, since Bruinsma is being served by mail, he is entitled an additional three (3) days after the period would otherwise expire.
